

Recycling EV Batteries: Skills and Qualifications Needed in Auto Workshops

AGENDA

November 30, 2021
10:30-12:00 CET

WELCOME BY THE MODERATOR

EU's policy in the automotive sector - developing policies and strategies related to electric vehicles and their end of life
James Copping, DG GROW, European Commission

PRESENTATION OF THE ALBATTs PROJECT

Blueprints on skills in battery industry and automotive sector
Jakub Štolfa, ALBATTs Project WP Supervisor and DRIVES Project Coordinator

EXPERTS PANEL

- Current legislative requirements and compliance therewith (ELV Directive – 2000/53/EC and Battery Directive – 2006/66/EC)
- The cooperation between the automotive industry and the recycling industry in general and on the EV battery subject in particular
- Focus on worker's skills, training needs and other implications in workforce in the context of the circular economy in the automotive sector
- Re-skilling and up-skilling of technicians and workers

- Rene Schroeder, Executive Director, EUROBAT
- Elena Wrelton, Environmental Compliance Manager ELVES Ireland
- Amélie Sophie Salau, Environmental Policy Director, ACEA
- Stewart McKinlay, Skills Director, NMIS Manufacturing Skills Academy, University of Strathclyde Glasgow, Scotland, UK

DEBATE

Panellists & Audience

CLOSING REMARKS

James Copping, DG GROW, European Commission

AFTER EVENT

Mingling discussions in Wonder.me! "Recycling EV batteries" room is waiting for you!